

LO: To understand the contribution that respectful behaviour has towards developing healthy relationships

Respect means...

Silent
independent

What does respect mean?

In pairs, mind map what the term 'respect' means.

You might consider:

- what respectful behaviour looks like,
- how we act if we are showing respect,
- how we may speak
- Anything else that you can think of

Respect

Consider each of the statements. Do you feel this is acceptable or unacceptable?

Leaving someone out of a group chat because you don't like them

Answer Acceptable or Unacceptable on your MWBs

Leaving someone out of a group chat because you don't like them

When might this be acceptable?

- We don't have to like everyone and be best friends with everyone we meet
- Maybe this person isn't your friend nor in your friendship group, or isn't involved in the thing you're talking about in the group
 - You can't always include everyone you know in every group chat

When might this be unacceptable?

- If the group chat discussed the person or made negative comments about them
 - If the person feels excluded by being left out and is affected by that
 - If leaving them out of the group is done in a disrespectful way

Consider each of the statements. Do you feel this is acceptable or unacceptable?

Wearing a t-shirt with an offensive statement on it

Answer Acceptable or Unacceptable on your MWBs

Consider each of the statements. Do you feel this is acceptable or unacceptable?

Being called a snitch because you told a teacher you were being bullied by someone

Answer Acceptable or Unacceptable on your MWBs

Consider each of the statements. Do you feel this is acceptable or unacceptable?

Parents telling their child to bully someone back if they are being bullied

Answer Acceptable or Unacceptable on your MWBs

Consider each of the statements. Do you feel this is acceptable or unacceptable?

Filming someone being bullied on your phone

Answer Acceptable or Unacceptable on your MWBs

Respect looks like...

Looks like

Sounds like

On your piece of sugar paper, draw a large stick figure

On one half write 'look like' on the other 'sounds like'

Write ideas on each side of your figure

What does respectful behaviour look like and sound like?

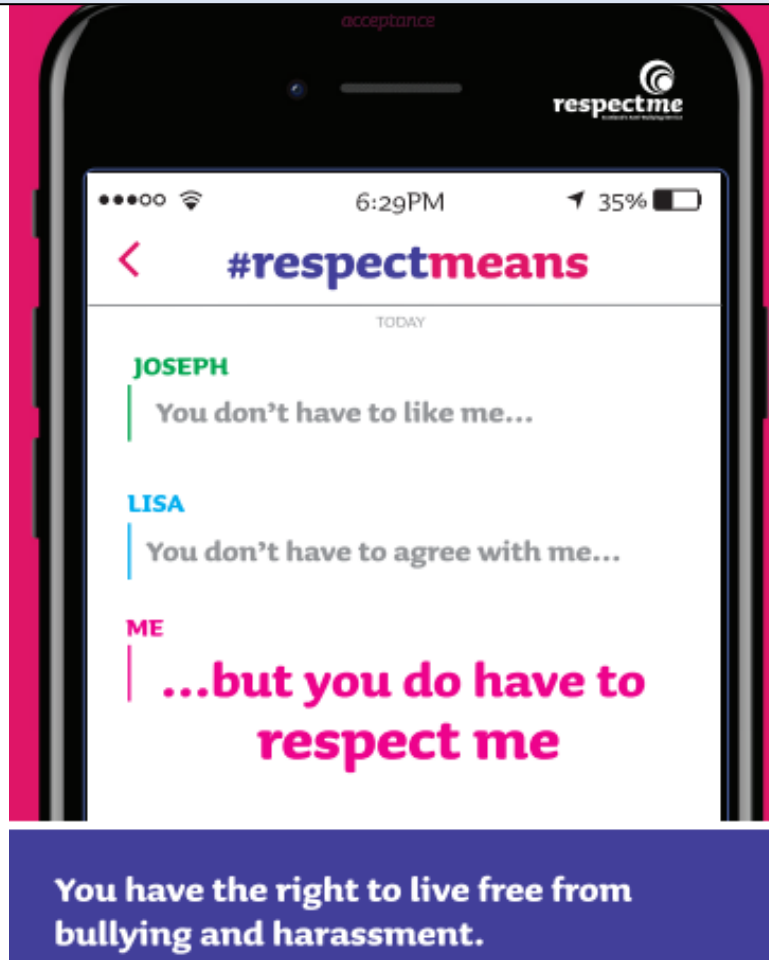

Respect means...

What did you take from the film?

What did you think of the film?

How has it made you think about your own behaviour?

Design a poster to send the message to other students about what respect means. You can use the ones above for ideas if you are stuck.

We will be selecting the top three produced in each class today and these will be displayed in school
